Potluck/AGM for All Members

Our Annual General Meeting will be on Thursday, January 30th at 6:00 pm. at my place. Please bring your cheque for your annual dues of $75 (which are due now) and your favourite dish to share. Your attendance at the AGM is really important.

So far, we will be discussing the possible elimination of categories from our Annual Juried Exhibition—sure to be a hot topic! We will be electing our executive for 2020. There will be a presentation from our Treasurer on where our finances are at and any other topics you as members, would like to discuss—as long as they are received by January 28th, 2020 to be put on the agenda. Most importantly it's a nice evening and a great way to meet new members.

Friday Night Sketching Going Strong

Don't know what to do on Friday night? Rob Sim is still holding Drop-In-to-Draw from 6:30 - 9:00PM starting January 17th. Its $10 per session and is open to non-members.

Art Instruction

Milos Milidrag, the juror for our 102nd Annual Juried Exhibition, is a longtime teacher and artist. He can help you to 'the next level' in your art. He teaches painting, students work in acrylic and he paints in oil. Classes cost $325 for 10 classes of 3 hours each. He is equal to a university Fine Arts instructor. The classes are small—3-5 people or so. He is art knowledgeable and can kick start your creativity. Mark Kosatsky has enjoyed taking his classes for several years and feels they have improved his work. Classes are held Tues. Fri. and Sat. 11-2 and Wed. 6:30-9:30 p.m. See: Milos Milidrag studio, 640-70 Arthur St. Wpg 2043335629. Email: milidrag.m.milos@gmail.com, www.milidrag.com.

Forum Art Classes start January 14, 2020. Classes for all ages and skill levels. Register now at: <https://www.forumartcentre.com> or register@forumartcentre.com or call 204-235-1069.

Portrait Artist Needed

For the past 20+ years, member Fran Partridge did portraits of the Holy Family Home residents that were in their 100th year to hang proudly on a display wall. They have reached out to our Club to see if anyone is interested in taking this on. Please contact Karen if you are interested and she will pass along your info.
